

Deacon's Beacons

October 7, 2019

“And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you.” Luke 12:29–31

We all need to eat and drink. But if those concerns outweigh all others, we can easily lose sight of God and focus only on material things. If you really trust God, why would you worry about what to eat or drink? God will provide, usually through moving the hearts of kind people to give of their wealth to help others. Maybe you do not have to worry about what to eat or drink. Then maybe this reflection is meant for you to open your heart and your wallet to help those around you.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike