

Deacon's Beacons

October 16, 2019

And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 1 John 2:28

When Jesus comes, will He be glad to see you or will He be disappointed? We are all sinners but sometimes our dedication to the faith wavers as well. How do you avoid that? Spend time in prayer and in reflection. Think about what your faith means to you and how you really feel about your relationship with God. We do not know when Jesus will come. Remember that, while John may have been talking specifically about the Second Coming, that really does occur for anyone who dies. It is not just a distant event. It will happen to each and every one of us. Are you ready? There is a cute Advent sign that I have seen in the past that says, "Jesus is coming. Look busy." But we should be busy about our spiritual welfare always.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
