All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work. 2 Timothy 3:16–17

Scripture is important. It is the Word of God. But delving into Scripture without guidance or direction can lead you to draw incorrect and sometimes inappropriate conclusions. We believe that the Church is guided by the Holy Spirit in interpreting Scripture. If you thirst for more knowledge of Scripture, which is a good and holy goal, you should seek sources of interpretation that are approved by the Magisterium of the Church.
