

Deacon's Beacons

February 21, 2019

Where shall I go from your Spirit?
Or where shall I flee from your presence?
If I ascend to heaven, you are there!
If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!
If I take the wings of the morning
and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
even there your hand shall lead me,
and your right hand shall hold me. Psalm 139:7-10

God is everywhere. God sees all that you do, knows all that you think and still loves you unconditionally. Some people have an image of God lurking around the corner waiting for them to make a mistake whereupon He would pounce on them and send them to Hell. Hopefully, this is not your idea. It is so far from wrong as to defy description. Our consciences cause us to suffer more than God ever intends. God will forgive you so seek His grace and reconciliation. No matter where you go, you cannot run away from God so why don't you choose instead to run toward God and into His forgiving arms?

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike