

Deacon's Beacons

August 12, 2019

So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. Galatians 3:24-26

Before Christ, all we had was the Law. But the Greek for what is here translated guardian is more like a slave whose job was to conduct one to school but played no role in teaching. With Christ, we no longer need that guardian since we have been given grace and faith to guide us. Our Teacher is the Holy Spirit given to us through the action of Jesus in His Death, Resurrection and Ascension. He promised the Holy Spirit, the Advocate or Consoler. Jesus keeps His promises. All we need to do is to be open to that Holy Spirit and receive the gifts for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God.
