

Deacon's Beacons

August 13, 2019

Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit. Psalm 32:1-2

We all sin. There is no question about that. But the grace of the Crucifixion is that our sins are forgiven. We have been given the Sacraments to help us. Particularly, the Sacrament of Reconciliation allows us to come before God and confess our sins, asking for forgiveness. Forgiveness is assured but it is both proper and polite to ask for it. There are people in your lives that you are positive will forgive you if you hurt them. But you still need to ask. It is the same with God and the special way in which to do that is the Sacrament.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike