

Deacon's Beacons

October 9, 2020

Blessed is the man
who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
but his delight is in the law of the LORD,
and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree
planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither.
In all that he does, he prospers. Psalm 1:1–3

When we follow God and do not throw in with the wicked, our spiritual growth is like those trees fed by the stream. We produce the fruits of faith. But just as a tree can rot, so too can sin destroy our produce. We must be ever vigilant because the devil knows exactly what buttons to push and how to leverage our weaknesses. Pray always and stay alert.
