Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light to my path. Psalm 119:105

If you are not walking in the light of God, you will surely lose your way. God's word, God's grace, God's mercy all illuminate the way in which we should be walking. We have to be open to those things so that our way is guided. Take the time to look at Scripture and listen for the small voice of the Holy Spirit to show you what it means in your life. Scripture is not dead words on a scroll. It is alive and will light the proper path for you.
