“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:3

Being poor in spirit had nothing to do with worldly wealth. It means that you recognize that all that you do have comes from God. It is an attitude of humility based on the goodness of God and not on our own worthiness or accomplishments. When you are poor in spirit, you do not have undue attachments to worldly goods. You seek only the grace and the love of God.
