

Deacon's Beacons

August 7, 2020

In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. John 14:2-3

This passage contains two promises. This is something that I often preach at funerals. The first promise is that Jesus says He will prepare a place especially for each of us. In some translations it is referred to as a mansion. The second part of the promise is that Jesus Himself will come and take us to that special place prepared for us. Think about that. Jesus will come back, lift up the one who has died to this world and take him or her to that mansion. Let that sink in.
