

Deacon's Beacons

September 24, 2020

for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control. 2 Timothy 1:7

Once again, we see that God is not to be feared. God is love and God is to be loved. Just as you would not willingly harm someone you love, neither should you choose to do something that would harm your relationship with God. The Spirit of God is power and through that Spirit we can achieve great things. One of those great things is self-control. If we can achieve that, we can avoid sin and any offenses against God.
