

Deacon's Beacons

September 17, 2020

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Matthew 28:18–20

Well, there is serendipity for you. This is the passage that I referenced in yesterday's message. This also answers the question of why we baptize. It is very simple. Jesus told us to. So we do. But He also told us to go out and preach, teach and evangelize. How comfortable are you with doing that? It is part of our responsibility by our own baptism. Yet we think we can leave it to professional "ministers." This is the responsibility of all God's people. Do not shirk your duty.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike