

Deacon's Beacons

October 15, 2021

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. Galatians 5:22–23

There is no room in the Spirit for negative things. The Spirit of God is born of love. Anything that thwarts that love is not of the Spirit. Sometimes we see things emerging from a church or a church group that is not based in love but in rancor and anger. That is not of God. That is humanness creeping in. We need to be vigilant and work to root those types of things out.
