

Deacon's Beacons

October 25, 2021

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. James 1:5–6

This seems to say that, if you ask in complete and total faith, anything for which you ask will be granted. But that is very hard. We are human and doubt creeps in. Maybe it is less hopeless than it appears. Maybe our faith may not be complete. But maybe if we concentrate enough to block out worldly influences and distractions, we can achieve the faith that we require. Remember that faith is a gift from God. Maybe that is the key.
