

Deacon's Beacons

October 29, 2021

Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us sufficient to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 2 Corinthians 3:4–6

This seems to continue the theme from yesterday. We are ministers of a new covenant only through the grace of God. It is not on our own merit that we have been made such. And I am not just talking about those who minister in either ordained or official capacity. Each of us, by our Baptism, are ministers of that covenant. God chose us in Baptism to do His work. Are we living up to our responsibility?
