

Deacon's Beacons

November 8, 2021

But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, John 1:12

Believing in Jesus opens to us the way to become part of the family of God. One could argue that all people are children of God, regardless of whether they acknowledge that or not. What makes the difference is recognizing what it means to be a child of God. It means that we must embrace certain beliefs and behaviors because of our acknowledgment. If we do not, then we may not be recognized by others as a child of God. How then can we possibly lead them to our Father?
