

Deacon's Beacons

November 10, 2021

For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 2 Corinthians 4:11

What Paul is speaking of here is not physical death but death to self, In that way, we put others before us. The life of Jesus was and is about the other. We carry that on with our self sacrifice. If we are not doing that, can we really call ourselves Christian? Being a Christian is not limited to a set of beliefs or practices. Being a Christian is being a follower of Jesus. Yes, WWJD is trite. But it is true nonetheless and eternally.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
