

Deacon's Beacons

December 3, 2021

“You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.” John 15:16

We are chosen by God. We must agree to be chosen. We are not special because God chose us. We are special because God created us. We accept that call by cooperating with the plan that God has for each of us. So, what has God chosen for you? Have you spent time in prayer and silence trying to discern what that is? That is the only way to seek the will of God. Unless you enter into the conversation and allow time for a response, you will never be able to see what God has in store for you.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
