The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. Psalm 121:5–6

This passage says that the Lord will protect us. Yet we know that bad things still happen. So how can we square this passage with what we have learned in life? God will, in fact, protect us. But that does not mean that nothing bad will ever happen. God will see us through those bad times. That is how we are protected. God did not protect His own Son from the Cross but He brought Jesus through that ordeal to an even greater end. Jesus died for our sins but He rose to give us eternal life...and hope.
