For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery. Galatians 5:1

In Philippians, Paul writes that Jesus took the form of a slave. But He did that to free us all from slavery. Our relationship with God changed profoundly when Christ entered the world. He taught us to call God our Father. A child is free while a slave is not. We are children of God, each and every one of us. That means something. It also means that whomever you encounter is also a child of God. That should, no, that must, color the way that you interact with them.
