Be not quick in your spirit to become angry, for anger lodges in the heart of fools. Ecclesiastes 7:9

Anger is not sin. But it can lead us easily into sin because it can cause us to lose control. Ecclesiastes is a book of Wisdom. But how wise is it to say, "Do not become angry?" Anger is easy to achieve and hard to control. But maybe the wisdom is in knowing that we must control anger or it will control us. Ponder that, especially now. The holidays add stress and it is so very easy to erupt in anger. Do you think the store is out of what you want just to make you angry? Know your triggers and manage them. Raging anger is not the way of God. And be thankful for that because we have given God more than enough reason to become angry with us.
