

Deacon's Beacons

December 30, 2021

And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises. Hebrews 6:11–12

It is easy to slack off on our devotions, particularly during busy times like the holidays. We must all remain vigilant and steadfast. Otherwise it is easy to fall away. It becomes convenient to not have to find time for prayer. Our attendance numbers would bear witness to the effect of not “having” to go to Mass has had. We can only pray that all will return to Church and we can grow rather than shrink. Look at the faith of our forefathers, particularly during times of persecution. Follow their example.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
