

Deacon's Beacons

March 3, 2021

Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ.
Colossians 3:23–24

We do good to others not just because we love them. In fact, we should be doing good to people we do not even like. We do it because we love God. We do it because it is what Jesus commanded us to do. Regardless of what our work may be, it is labor of love for God and not just for our employer or our paycheck. In today's Gospel, Jesus said He did not come to be served but to serve. We must do the same.
