Let brotherly love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Hebrews 13:1–2

God puts angels in our paths. I am not talking about physical apparitions necessarily. But God's grace can work through many sources. Maybe someone who talks to us when we are lonely. Maybe someone who comes to our rescue out of the blue. Heavenly bodies? Probably not. But funnels of God's grace? Most certainly. Remember that "angel" is a function, a messenger, not a being. Regardless of whether we expect to see angels, it is always good to exhort people to let brotherly love continue. That is the only way that we can make a better world.
