

Deacon's Beacons

August 6, 2021

Am I a God at hand, declares the LORD, and not a God far away? Can a man hide himself in secret places so that I cannot see him? declares the LORD. Do I not fill heaven and earth? declares the LORD. Jeremiah 23:23–24

God is everywhere. That means that God is always present. I know that there are times when God seems to be absent. That is never the truth. God may be waiting and not seeming to answer. But God works outside of time. Our concept of time is limited by our experience and our intellect. So, really, is our understanding of God. We anthropomorphize God so that we can more easily relate to Him. But God is God and we are not. So we cannot understand His nature regardless of our intellect or our level of schooling. This is one of those times where the faith of a child is needed.
