

Deacon's Beacons

September 3, 2021

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. Romans 12:2

Discerning the will of God is central to our proper walk as Christians. It is also one of the most difficult things to do. We continually second guess ourselves. Is that really what God wants me to do? How can I be sure? The only way to be sure is to follow where you believe God is leading you and then trust. If it is right, it will work out. If it is not, then God will intervene. It may be a subtle feeling or maybe an obstacle that does not seem to be moveable. We cannot be sure of the will of God except in hindsight. So we have to step out in faith and trust. In the words of Thomas Merton: And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road though I may know nothing about it.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike