

Deacon's Beacons

January 11, 2022

Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride of life—is not from the Father but is from the world. And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. 1 John 2:15–17

The world is for our use. But it is not the end purpose of our existence. We are here to be in relationship – with one another and with God. The world is a tool that allows us to survive. When it becomes our master, we have gone astray. Do not let worldly desires get in the way of your ultimate purpose which is to love. But to love without seeking return. We are to love because that is what Jesus told us to do.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike