

Deacon's Beacons

June 27, 2022

“And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them. Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things will be added to you.” Luke 12:29–31

What you focus on is important. It says something about your priorities. Of course you need food and drink. But that is not the purpose of life, to eat and drink. If you are living in a way that seeks the kingdom of God, then what you need will be provided. Believe that people of good conscience will not allow you to go without. Believe that the love of God will be reflected in the love you receive from your neighbor. Believe that you can be that love to others around you. That is the single commandment that Jesus gives us in John's Gospel – love one another.
